

KRESKIN J. TORRES

Blogger and Influencer

ABOUT ME

i'm a 32 year old native of Baltimore, Maryland. By driving the Uber and Lyft platform, I decided four years ago to experience people in other parts of the country. Today, I have supported hundreds of businesses in 45 states. I'm a huge foodie and have always been a lover of dance, culture and film. I grew up wanting to experience what was outside of my neighborhood and enjoyed meeting new people and seeing new places. My blog was created for those, like myself, who enjoy stepping out of their comfort zone. I hope everyone enjoys what I have in-store. My only request is that we have fun and try something new. Thank you for your support.

KRESKIN'S JOURNEY

What started as a way to see the country has become an adventure of a lifetime. Exploring America and meeting the people has educated me in so many ways. I truly believe that food can be our common ground. I have met people of all walks of life all from sharing a meal and having conversation about life and true happiness. My joy shines through my blogs and people have enjoyed every moment. I am truly living my dream.

MY IG AUDIENCE

This audience has been the most viewed and followed since I offer video footage instead of photo images of my plates. The support has been consistent. I am able to connect with my followers and share the adventure from my point of view. Audience here stay engaged and look forward to my next food stops.

MY FB AUDIENCE

Through this method I'm able to give them live thoughts and reactions in every city I visit. I feel its this amazing to me because of the personal aspect. Most of my friends I've connected with through this outlet. Many of my friendships have been built this way. I have learned so much just from the personal connections that I have established through this method.

My hope is to branch out to major events that will be headliners for decades and hopefully provide a platform for those wanting to follow in my footsteps. I believe that by employing more dreamers there will be plenty of ways to change the world. The ultimate goal is to live my dream and leave behind a legacy.
